Hope you all are having a nice spring!

The flyer for the upcoming Annual PARSE Central Penn Picnic on June 18th is included in this newsletter. All 50/50 monies collected will be distributed to attendees holding winning tickets and prizes totaling $2,000 will also be awarded. To win one of the prizes for the $2,000, you must be present and be wearing your name tag. Remember, it only costs $15 for members and $20 for guests of attending members. Also, please remember to bring your soup/food items for the food bank.

Membership has been increasing and we are pleased with the number of renewals this year. At the end of March, 6,551 members have renewed their membership, which is approximately 95% of last year’s total. There are members who still have not renewed. Please note the membership application is on our website or available at our luncheons. If you wish to renew, you must send your check to the state office. The WEB sites for both the chapter and the state office are listed on the back of your newsletter in the black boxes.

A reminder of the Senators game and picnic on May 26th with the picnic starting at 4:30 pm. If you are still interested you need to contact Shirley Hoffman. The flyer was in the last newsletter.

On the PARSE travel trips, once your deposit is made, you need to send the balance 30 to 45 days prior to the trip (depending on the trip). You can also make payments up until the 30 to 45 days. No invoices or e-mails are sent reminding you of what you owe. Depending on the trip, full payment would be due when signing up after that 30 to 45 days deadline. Remember, the deposits for the trips are: $50 deposit for one-day trips and $100 deposit for overnight trips (this is per person), unless otherwise stated on the flyer. If you have any questions, contact Jan or Karen.
